

Miss Fogarty's Christmas Cake

C. Frank Horn

C. Frank Horn (1900)

G

1. As I sat by me win - dow last eve - ning the
2. Miss Mul - li - gan want - ed to try it but
3. Miss Fo - gar - ty proud as a pea - cock kept
4. Ma - lo - ney was took with the co - lic, O' -

3

D

let - ter - man brought it to me: A lit - tle gilt-edged in - vi - real - ly it was - n't no use We worked on it o - ver an smi - ling and blink - ing a - way She tripped o - ver Flan - a - gen's Don - ald's a pain in his head. Mc - Nul - ty lay down on the ta - tion sayin', "Gil - hoo - ley, com o - ver to tea." Well I hour and we could - n't get none of it loose, Till bro - gans and spilt the home brew in her tea. Gil - so - fa, and swore that he wished he were dead. Miss

6

G A D

9

D7 G

knew that the Fo - gar - ties sent it, So I Kel - ly came in with a hat - chet and hoo - ley," she says, "you're not eat - ing try a Bai - ley went in - to hys - ter - ics and 11

C G

went just for old friend - ship's sake. And the Mur - hy came in with a saw. That lit - tle bit more for me sake." "Ah,
there she did wrig - gle and shake And

13 C G

first thing they gave me to tack - le_____ was a cake was e - nough by the pow - ers_____ for to no,_____ Miss Fo - gar - ty," says I_____ "for I've ev - 'ry - one swore they were poi - soned_____ by Miss slice of Miss Fo - gar - ty's cake. There were plums and prunes and par - a - lyze a - ny man's jaw.

15 D G C

 had quite e - nough of your cake."
 Fo - gar - ty's Christ - mas cake.

18 G

cher-ries_____ Cit-trons and rai - sons and cin - na - mon, too, There was

21 C G A

nut - meg, cloves, and ber - ries,_____ And a crust that was nailed on with

24 D D7 G

glue._____ There were car - a - way seeds in a - bun - dance_____ Sure t'would

27 A D G

work up a fine sto-mach ache That would kill a man twice af - ter

30 C D G

eat - ing a slice of Miss Fo - gar - ty's Christ - mas cake.